LOT 173 - 1958 Centreville Elementary Dedication Program

Description

1958 dedication program for Centreville Elementary School in Centreville, Maryland, commemorating the school's official inauguration on April 12. The cover features an illustration of the school with the dedication date. Inside are black-and-white photographs of school events and activities, providing a historical glimpse of the institution and community at the time. The program includes advertisements from local businesses such as R. B. Baker & Sons, Inc., and others, highlighting community involvement. The condition shows signs of age and storage, typical for a paper item from this period. An interesting collectible for those interested in local educational history or vintage ephemera.
